Seven-Day Special Camp – Day 2 Activity Report

Date: 25 February 2026

Venue: Shanti Nagar, Chaudhary Patti, Baraut

The second day of the seven-day Special Camp organized by the National Service Scheme (NSS) Unit IV of Janta Vedic College, Baraut was conducted with a strong emphasis on service, cleanliness, and public awareness.

1. Cleanliness Campaign at Shiv Temple

Subsequently, a cleanliness campaign was carried out at the Shiv Temple परिसर located in Shanti Nagar, Patti Chaudharyan. The volunteers, with great dedication and teamwork, cleaned the temple premises and its surrounding areas, contributing significantly towards maintaining public hygiene and promoting the message of cleanliness in the community.

2. Road Safety Awareness Campaign & Public Awareness at Local Intersection

In the afternoon session, a Road Safety Awareness Campaign was organized. The volunteers prepared creative and informative posters on road safety, effectively conveying important messages to the public. The volunteers visited a nearby local intersection where they interacted with the general public and raised awareness about essential road safety rules. They emphasized the importance of wearing helmets, using seat belts, avoiding driving under the influence of alcohol, and refraining from using mobile phones while driving.

4. Street Play (Nukkad Natak) on Road Safety

A major highlight of the programme was the presentation of an impactful street play (Nukkad Natak) based on road safety. Through this performance, the volunteers effectively depicted the causes of road accidents and suggested preventive measures in an engaging and emotionally appealing manner. The performance received appreciation from the local residents.

Seven-Day Special Camp – Day 3 Activity Report

Date: 26 February 2026

Venue: Shanti Nagar, Chaudhary Patti, Baraut

The third day of the seven-day Special Camp organized by the National Service Scheme (NSS) Unit IV of Janta Vedic College, Baraut was conducted with great enthusiasm and a strong focus on public awareness. The day began with the arrival of all volunteers at the camp site.

Awareness Session on Government Schemes

The main theme of the day was "Awareness about Government Schemes." On this occasion, Mr. Amit Kumar Verma from the Post Office, Baraut Headquarters, was invited as the resource person. He provided detailed information to the local residents about various important government schemes in a simple and accessible manner.

He elaborated on the Sukanya Samriddhi Yojana, highlighting its importance as a savings scheme for girls aged 0 to 10 years, aimed at securing their future. He also explained the Rural Postal Life Insurance (RPLI) scheme and its benefits for rural populations. Additionally, he informed the villagers about the importance of opening savings accounts in post offices, emphasizing their safety, accessibility, and benefits even with minimal deposits.

Seven-Day Special Camp – Day 4 Activity Report

Date: 27 February 2026

Venue: College Campus & Shanti Nagar, Chaudhary Patti, Baraut

Participation in “Viksit Bharat Youth Parliament 2026”

The fourth day of the seven-day Special Camp organized by the National Service Scheme (NSS) Unit IV of Janta Vedic College, Baraut was successfully conducted with active participation and intellectual engagement.

In the first session, all volunteers participated in the “Viksit Bharat Youth Parliament 2026” programme organized at the college campus. The volunteers took part with great enthusiasm and presented their views on the theme “50 Years of Emergency: Lessons for Indian Democracy.”

The participants expressed their ideas effectively, highlighting the importance of democratic values, the dignity of the Constitution, and the crucial role of youth in nation-building. Their presentations reflected awareness, confidence, and critical thinking on contemporary socio-political issues.

Social Awareness Session and Cultural Activity

In the second session, held at the camp site, discussions were conducted on various social issues prevailing in society, with a special focus on the problem of substance abuse.

To further strengthen the message, the volunteers presented an impactful SKIT on the theme of “Drug De-addiction.” The performance effectively conveyed awareness about the dangers of substance abuse and encouraged the community to adopt a healthy and responsible lifestyle. Additionally, an important discussion was held on the issue of population explosion, where the causes, consequences, and control measures were elaborated upon. The session helped in enhancing awareness and understanding among the participants regarding this pressing social concern.

The programme concluded with a collective sense of social awareness and a positive commitment towards bringing constructive change in society.

Seven-Day Special Camp – Day 5 Activity Report

Date: 28 February 2026

Venue: Shanti Nagar, Chaudhary Patti, Baraut

Theme: Environmental Protection, Disaster Management, and Scientific Awareness Campaign

Environmental Awareness and Waste Management Activities

The fifth day of the seven-day Special Camp organized by the National Service Scheme (NSS) Unit IV of Janta Vedic College, Baraut was conducted with great enthusiasm under the theme “Environmental Protection, Disaster Management, and Scientific Awareness Campaign.”

The programme commenced with the ceremonial lighting of the lamp followed by the NSS song, creating a disciplined and inspiring atmosphere.

In the first session, activities related to waste management were organized. The volunteers prepared creative and informative posters emphasizing the importance of segregation of wet and dry waste. They highlighted the need to separate biodegradable and non-biodegradable waste for better environmental management.

Subsequently, a door-to-door awareness campaign was conducted in the locality. The volunteers interacted with residents and motivated them to segregate waste into wet and dry categories, separate recyclable materials such as paper and plastic, and maintain cleanliness in their surroundings. The campaign witnessed a positive response, with several households showing willingness to adopt waste segregation practices.

Disaster Management, Fire Safety Demonstration and Science Activities

The second session of the day focused on disaster management and fire safety, which was the major highlight of the programme. The Fire Station In-charge, Mr. Sonu Kumar, along with his team, visited the camp and provided detailed information about different types of fire and preventive measures.

The fire department team conducted a practical demonstration on the use of fire extinguishers and emergency response techniques. The volunteers actively participated in the demonstration and were given hands-on experience in operating fire safety equipment. This activity significantly enhanced their confidence and preparedness to handle emergency situations.

On the occasion of National Science Day, a Science Quiz was also organized. The volunteers participated enthusiastically, demonstrating their scientific knowledge, curiosity, and analytical thinking.

The day concluded with active participation and a strong message of environmental consciousness, safety awareness, and scientific thinking among the volunteers.

Seven-Day Special Camp – Day 6 Activity Report

Date: 1 March 2026

Venue: Mission Shakti Centre, Kotwali Baraut & Shanti Nagar, Chaudhary Patti, Baraut

---

The sixth day of the seven-day Special Camp organized by the National Service Scheme (NSS) Unit IV of Janta Vedic College, Baraut was conducted with great enthusiasm and awareness-oriented activities. The day began with a cleanliness drive at the camp site, where the volunteers actively participated in maintaining hygiene and contributed through shramdaan.

A visit to Mission Shakti Centre, Kotwali Baraut

In the first session, the volunteers visited the Mission Shakti Centre, Kotwali Baraut as part of an educational exposure activity.

On this occasion, the In-charge Sub-Inspector, Mrs. Ritu Chaudhary, addressed the volunteers and provided detailed information on women empowerment, women safety, and helpline services. She also emphasized important aspects of cyber security, advising students to enable two-step verification on WhatsApp, keep social media accounts private, and avoid opening suspicious messages, links, or files from unknown sources.

Sub-Inspector Mr. Vjendra Singh further elaborated on the proper and improper use of mobile phones and preventive measures against cyber crimes. He advised students to regularly update their devices, never share OTPs, and remain cautious of suspicious calls, emails, or links. Special emphasis was laid on avoiding ".apk" files, which may compromise personal data and lead to cyber fraud. The volunteers were also informed about important helpline numbers, including Women Helpline (1090), Emergency Service (112), and Cyber Crime Helpline (1930), and were encouraged to use them whenever necessary.

During the visit, the volunteers also interacted with the Station House Officer, Mr. Manoj Kumar Chahal, who motivated them to pursue their goals with dedication, discipline, and perseverance. He encouraged the students to dream big and work consistently towards achieving success.

On the valedictory day, all volunteers arrived at the camp site on time and efficiently managed the arrangements and decorations for the closing ceremony. The programme commenced with the ceremonial lighting of the lamp by the Chief Guest, Mrs. Babita Tomar, Chairperson of Baraut Municipal Council.

Cultural programmes

Following the inauguration, a series of cultural programmes was presented by the volunteers. Anushka Chaudhary delivered an energetic performance on the NSS song, creating a vibrant atmosphere. A humorous play titled "Yasraj Ki Adalar" was presented by Anushka, Gauri, Mummun, Sanjana, and Nisha, which captivated the audience with its engaging performance.

Group dance performances by Nishtha, Tanya, and Rashi were well appreciated. Another meaningful play titled "Ek Kadam Samaj Ki Ore" was performed by Saniya, Anushka, Mantasha, Gauri, and Muskan, highlighting the spirit and objectives of NSS. Mantasha delivered an inspiring speech, while Sanjana and Gauri presented energetic songs titled "Aarambh" and "Prachand". A soulful poetry recitation on NSS was presented by Saima, adding emotional depth to the programme.

Awards, Addresses and Conclusion

During the समावेश, Saniya was awarded the title of “Best Volunteer” and presented with a trophy for her outstanding contribution. Additionally, Saniya, Saima, Anushka Chaudhary, Gauri Kushwaha, Mantasha, and Musmun Sharma were honored as Best Volunteers for their active participation and dedication throughout the camp.

In her address, the Chief Guest, Mrs. Babita Tomar, appreciated the enthusiasm and discipline of the volunteers and emphasized the importance of social service in life. Mr. Virendra Singh Triwari from the Municipal Council encouraged students to remain committed to cleanliness and contribute towards maintaining hygienic surroundings in both urban and rural areas.

Distinguished Guest Dr. Amarpal Singh highlighted the objectives and motto of NSS, “Not Me, But You,” and emphasized its role in developing service spirit, leadership qualities, and social responsibility among youth. Dr. Manoj Sharma also motivated the students to actively contribute towards nation-building.

The Programme Officer, Dr. Indu, in her concluding remarks, reflected on the achievements of the seven-day camp. She stated that the camp served as an effective platform for personality development, social awareness, and the cultivation of a spirit of national service. She also expressed her gratitude to all guests, supporting staff, and volunteers for their valuable contributions. The programme was further graced by the presence of Mr. Mahipal Singh, Mrs. Sarla Devi, and Mrs. Muneshwari Devi.

The valedictory ceremony concluded with the National Anthem, marking the formal and successful completion of the seven-day NSS Special Camp.

The success of the camp was made possible by the dedicated efforts of volunteers, including Saniya, Saima, Anushka Chaudhary, Gauri Kushwaha, Mantasha, and Munmun Sharma. Special recognition was given to Lab Assistant Sunil Kumar for his invaluable support in making the camp a success.
